Easter Morn at All Saints' Church

Beloved in Christ,

Easter Tuesday, April 2, 1018

What a joy it is to be out of my wheelchair! I never believed I would experience such a sense of freedom!

It's not that I am not learning much during my convalescence. One has a new and distinct appreciation of the world when seated in a wheel chair.

As a Virginian, I was taught to stand when a woman or an elder entered the room. Since I was unable to do so, any conversation began with an apology, "Pardon me for not standing".

At the level of my seating, I suddenly had to look up to see my conversation partner, but at the same time was eye-level with children.

Responses to my presence was varied. Many folk let me pass them or precede them. Others rudely rushed in front of me and ignored me. I must admit, folk were most generous in their willingness to open the door for me.

This is to simply say that one experiences life differently when one changes one's position in life.

As Christians, we need to be conscious of such change. I am treated differently if I don't have the same color of skin or if I am not the same gender. I need to be sensitive to those who are not sympathetic to my injury. If my stance on sexual orientation is different than others before me, I need to evaluate myself to see if I am being gracious to those different than I am.

I have discovered the real meaning of "walking in another's moccasins". There are totally different views and emotions when one is visiting the hospital room and when one is lying in bed as a patient.

Please permit me to say how indebted I am to Buddy Glover, our Senior Warden. Not only is he an excellent chauffeur (I am unable to drive until next month), but he has kept the ship afloat. Parish Administrator Karen Phillips Smith has enabled us to experience a smooth ride on the boat (to continue the metaphor) during my absence.

My accident revealed to me how loving my family is, as they literally loved me back to health. Not only am I talking about the love from my bride and three sons, but also the love from members of the parish, who showered me with cards, telephone calls, food, prayers and yes, even a Lazy Boy chair.

Thank you, Bishop Peter and my fellow clerics, for your attention directed to me while I was in the hospital. There are many benefits in being a priest and one of them is the care one's fellow ministers direct to you. Considering ordination? Please contemplate such a benefit.

Happy Easter, all !

Notes & Notifications from the Parish Administrator

“ We are now about to take our leave and kind farewell to our native land, the country the Great Spirit gave our Fathers, we are on the eve of leaving that country of our birth, it is with great sorrowwe bid farewell to it and all we hold dear.”

Charles Hicks, Cherokee Vice President speaking of the Trail of Tears, November 1838

Dear Sisters & Brothers,

It is with great sorrow that our most dear Father Frisby will be retiring from All Saints' in May. What an incredible joy it has been to be a part of his ministry! It has also been an extraordinary honor to serve as your Parish Administrator for twelve years.

I have been in this office from the day the Sheriff's department began their investigation into the embezzlement of our parish. I vividly remember all the many people who so generously donated office supplies, food and paper products during our time of healing and recovery. I am forever grateful to those angels who volunteered to help in any way and I am also indebted to so many of you who were perhaps hesitant when I approached you for assistance and yet you agreed to jump in and you did such an incredible job. Isn't it such an extraordinary blessing that we continue to have so very many folks willing to offer their gifts to God and to our parish?

I will so miss the daily interaction and the pleasure to work with so very many of you. My heart and mind are filled with memories of each of you as well as those All Saints' Angels who, although gone from this earth, played an instrumental role in the life of All Saints' and touched my heart in such a profound way.

I am ever so sure that the Bishop will be keeping Father extremely busy and I am also exceedingly confident that the person filling the position of Parish Administrator here at All Saints' will exceed your every expectation.

With great appreciation & blessings,
Karen

DEACON'S REPORT

I have just returned home from Martin Correctional Institution where along with about 35 other Christian volunteers we completed Kairos Weekend #48 at this prison. We hosted 36 candidates for the entire weekend, which begins on Thursday afternoon with introductions. It continues for the next 3 days ending around 5:30 PM. It is an intense Christian experience for these prison residents modeled on Cursillo.

Most of them respond very positively to our love and feel the transforming love of our savior Jesus Christ. They begin to feel no longer alone in their lives through the unconditional love we bring. We continue to meet with them regularly at the prison where we return for reunions every month. Our primary objective is to get them involved in ongoing prayer and share groups with other Christians at MCI. It is not an easy life for any of them, but many have become devout Christians and feel much more hope in their lives. Thank you all for your help in this ministry which includes financial help, prayers and art work. I have now completed this on 13 different weekends. Our young people in Sunday School have made place mats which are given for their meals and can take back to their dorms which they love.

I continue to offer financial assistance to those in need, both in our parish and in the community, through the TRUE FUND to help people in need when they have unexpected expenses. This means they fall behind in rent or FPL payments. It is very much appreciated when you give to this fund. We also give money to people from my discretionary fund when sometimes individuals or families don't have money for food or shelter.

Pastoral Care is also provided to as many people we can visit or contact when they can no longer come to Church due to chronic and acute health problems. As you are all aware, we are a congregation of many elderly and infirm members.

In God's love,
Deacon Alan

7th Annual Endowment Reception a Success

More than forty parishioners attended the 7th annual Endowment Reception on Friday evening, March 23 to enjoy food, fellowship - and free legal advice. The Reception was open to all parishioners and included heavy hors d'oeuvres and libation supplied by your endowment board: Wanda Beymer, Alan Gellert, Pam Hurd, Barbara Lisman, Walter Mawhinney, Frank Sundquist, Wally Wallace, Bill Winsemann, Buddy Glover and Father Frisby - with additional contributions by Karen Neff, Joan Whitting, Marylee Johnson, Jan Rajki, and Louise Andrews; and bar service by Tom and Maryann Sinagra. The program featured attorney Kathryn Bass (pictured below) – back by popular demand - a trust and estates attorney and partner in the McCarthy Summers law firm. (Kathryn also is on the vestry at Church of the Advent in Palm City, and this was her 10th appearance for this event!) She was assisted by her associate Peggy Wood in updating attendees on how to monitor their estate plans, recent changes in trusts and estates law and an explanation of the recent Tax Law and its affect on parishioners, including charitable giving. Bob Taylor, Chairman of the Endowment, updated parishioners on the Endowment – with over $180K in assets – the earnings from which are used for outreach or projects to grow our church – and now with 78 members in its Heritage Society.

Peering Into The Past

There is little in the way of paper records from the earliest days of our cemetery. Not all graves are marked and many interred are known to God alone. August “Gus” Hars was moved to the All Saints’ Cemetery some 25 years after his death and his grave is marked. “... The petition of Heinrick Hars shows that he is a brother of the late August Hars deceased, who died December 6, 1887 in Brevard County, Florida but his residence being at Waveland, Florida...” At this time All Saints’ was in Waveland and in Brevard County.

“Carroll Dunscombe of lawful age being first duly sworn upon his oath, states that he is well acquainted with land convey by Warranty Deed dated April 5, 1902, recorded in Deed Book 6 at page 244 of the public records of Palm Beach County which deed recites that the grave of August Hars is to remain undisturbed until a cemetery is opened at Stuart when body may be removed and knows of his own knowledge that the body of August Hars was removed from said land and re-entered in the Cemetery at all Saints Episcopal Church Waveland, Florida during the year 1902, and that there is now no grave on said land.” (i)

His grave is along the southern most side of the old cemetery about ½ way between the mausoleums and Coffey Hall if you want to stop and see the dates and details engraved on this picturesque monument or go to www.findagrave.com, Memorial 70294251.

By the way, he is not recorded as having any connection to this church and his faith is now known to God alone.

(i) An AFFIDAVIT filed August 15, 1925 and recorded in the Martin County Deed Record Book 1, p. 69.

All Saints' Women's Fellowship

Spring greetings to everyone! Our March 17th meeting was well attended with 25 St. Patrick's Day attired members present. After a little socializing and eating of delicious baked items (some green!), we got right to work by discussing how we should distribute our fundraising monies. After presentations on all possible considerations, everyone was given a "ballot" to check off the categories they would like to have funded and their suggested amount. Joan Whitting, Marylee Johnson-Alves and Karen Neff volunteered to tally the ballots and narrow it down to the items that received the most votes. We shall meet in April and receive the final vote to determine the distribution of our funds.

A big thank you to all of the bakers that provided baked cookies and brownies for the Men's Fellowship BBQ and Classic Car show. What a huge success! It was a beautiful day and so much fun to walk down memory lane and admire the fabulous "classic" cars!

Our next meeting will be April 21 at 9:30 in Houg Hall. It's an important meeting as we shall be taking the final vote on distribution of our fundraising funds. We hope to see everyone there. And remember, all women of All Saints' Church are members of the Women's Fellowship. We welcome everyone's participation and it's a perfect way to get to know all of us here at All Saints'.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

My name is Jacqueline Louise Gowran and I am the Chef/Owner of Season's Palate Catering & Events. Recently I became a member of the All Saints' Episcopal Church following my Baptism on January 21, 2018.

I rent the kitchen at Houg Hall where I am launching my new business. Some of you might have tried my offerings at our church events, but many have not. In an effort to share and contribute to our fellowship, I will be providing the "Coffee Hour" foods for both the 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. services on April 29, 2018.*

I invite you all to come and try a sampling of our foods in hopes that you will consider Season's Palate for your catered events and spread the word of your in-house catering capabilities.

Working together, we can draw folks to our unique church on the hill, overlooking the beautiful Indian River and share all that we have to offer as Brothers & Sisters in Christ.

Thank you for your time and may peace be with each and everyone in our congregation.

Yours,
Jacqueline (Jacques) Louise Gowran

candles has long been a tradition in churches throughout the world. What a comfort it is to know that somewhere a small flame is burning in honor of a loved one. In the lighting of candles, we remember and truly live the words of Our Lord: "I am the Light of the World." In the lighting of candles we not only pray, but our prayers become smaller symbols of the One Light of Christ. Lighting a candle is a way of extending one's prayer and showing solidarity with the person on whose behalf the prayer is offered.

Even though the candles are small, they will burn for 6 hours and not break the glass. Please do not be afraid to light a candle. They represent prayers said and look beautiful!
